There will be one service on New Years Eve at 10am. It will be a version on the Moravian Love Feast. John Wesley was very fond of the Moravians and the Love Feast, in particular, really spoke to him. It is NOT Holy Communion but will have Moravian Sugar Cake and a small cup of tea. It is meant to be a time of testimony, sharing how you have seen God moving in your life this past year or look forward to the year to come; or simply sharing the word from scripture. It will also be a healing service including prayer and anointing with oil.
