THANK YOU

Thanks you for the cards, goodies, and mostly the prayers that I received during my surgery. I feel so blessed. God is good!
-Gilmore Honey

THANK YOU

A special thank you to all my friends at grace church for the many get well notes and also cards for all the holidays. I truly appreciate your prayers and visits, and communion with Pastor Tim.
-Lois Shelley

GRACE NEEDS YOU

Thank you so much to those of you who responded to the call of extra support for the church's general budget. You may not be aware that in addition to the utilities increasing, our Property and Liability Insurance went up over $5,000 this year, that was an increase of 51% from last year. Some have wondered if the new televisions were paid for from the general budget? No, that was done with a very generous, designated gift.

It's your generosity and dedication to God that has enabled Grace's ministry to go forward. Together, by God's grace, we will meet our financial obligations.

DENOMINATIONAL DISAFFILIATION UPDATE

A recent breakthrough in the legal mire Grace Church has been in —trying to separate from the United Methodist Church due to the recent actions of the General Conference changing our Book of Discipline—is encouraging. The judge ruled in favor of the 50 churches, including us, desiring separation. The judge's "Summary Judgement" means that the reasons we have given for leaving the denomination have been accepted as grounds for going forward to trial. The fervent hope is that the Conference, Bishop and General Conference will want to settle fairly rather than go to trial.

The full "Summary Judgement" document is available in the office for you to look at. Please keep this process in prayer.
